

APRIL 8

Great and Holy Wednesday, Bridegroom Matins (sung on Tuesday)

Tone 8      Troparion

Behold, the Bridegroom comes at midnight, and blessed is the servant whom He shall find watching;
and again, unworthy is the servant whom He shall find heedless.
Beware, therefore, O my soul, do not be weighed down with sleep,
lest you be given up to death,
and lest you be shut out of the Kingdom!
But rouse yourself, crying: "Holy, holy, holy, are You, O our God!"
Through the Theotokos have mercy on us!

Tone 3*      Kathisma Hymn (following Kathisma 14)

The harlot came to You, O Lover of mankind, pouring myrrh and tears on Your feet.
At Your command she was delivered from the stench of her evil deeds, but Your graceless Disciple, though breathing Your grace, rejected it and wallowed in filth,
selling You in his love of money.//
Glory, O Christ, to Your compassion!

Tone 4      Kathisma Hymn (following Kathisma 15)

Deceitful Judas,
burning with love of money,
deceitfully plotted to betray You, O Lord,
the treasury of life.
He drunkenly runs to the Jews and says to those transgressors://
"What will you give me, and I shall deliver Him to you, that He may be crucified?"

Tone 1      Kathisma Hymn (following Kathisma 16)

In tears the harlot cried out, O compassionate One, as she fervently wiped Your most pure feet with the hair of her head,
and she groaned from the depths of her soul:
"Cast me not away, neither abhor me, O my God,
but receive me in my repentance and save me,//
for You alone are the Lover of mankind!"

* Kathisma Hymns are pointed to be sung to the Bakhmetev Obikhod Troparion melody.

Gospel
(41-ctr) John 12:17-50

The Three-Ode Canon

Tone 2      Ode 3 - Heirmos

You have established me on the rock of faith.
You have opened wide my mouth against my enemies,
for my spirit rejoices in singing:
“None is holy but our God, and none is righteous but You, O Lord.”

Refrain: Glory to You, our God, glory to You!

*The assembly of lawless men gathers together for empty discussion and with evil intent, to pronounce sentence upon You, O Christ the Deliverer.
But we sing to You:
“You are our God, and none is holy but You, O Lord.”*

*Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.*

*The fearful council of lawless men, with souls full of hatred toward God, intends to kill the righteous Christ as an evildoer.
But we sing to You:
“You are our God, and none is holy but You, O Lord.”*

(Katavasia: “You have established...”)

Tone 4      Kontakion

Though I have transgressed more than the harlot, O Good One,
I have not offered You a flood of tears,
but praying in silence I fall down before You.
With love I embrace Your most pure feet.
As Master, grant me remission of sins,
when I cry to You, O Savior://
“Deliver me from the filth of my evil deeds!”

Ikos

*The woman who was once a profligate suddenly is wise.
She hates her shameful deeds and carnal pleasures, remembering the magnitude of her shame and the verdict of condemnation which awaits profligates and harlots.
Of these, I am indeed the first, and though in terror,
I foolishly remain in my evil ways.
But the harlot, though in terror, hastens to the Deliverer to cry:
“In Your compassion and love for mankind,
deliver me from the filth of my evil deeds!”*

Tone 2      Ode 8 - Heirmos

*The command of the tyrant prevailed;
the furnace was heated seven-fold.
But the Youths were not burned in it.
Trampling on the king’s decree, they sang:
“Praise the Lord, all works of the Lord!
Sing and exalt Him throughout all ages!”*

Refrain: Glory to You, our God, glory to You!

*The woman poured precious myrrh upon Your kingly, divine and awesome head, O Christ.
She grasped Your most pure feet with her impure hands and cried:
“Praise the Lord, all works of the Lord!
Sing and exalt Him throughout all ages!”*

Refrain: Glory to You, our God, glory to You!

*The woman who was guilty of an abundance of sins, washed Your feet with the abundance of her tears and wiped them with her hair.
Therefore she was not deprived of absolution for the many sins of her life, but cried:
“Praise the Lord, all works of the Lord!
Sing and exalt Him throughout all ages!”*

*Let us bless the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
now and ever and unto ages of ages! Amen.*

*A sacred rite of redemption, wrought of saving compassion and a flood of tears, is administered to the right-minded woman.
Washed in this fountain by her confession, she is not ashamed, but cries out:
“Praise the Lord, all works of the Lord!
Sing and exalt Him throughout all ages!”*

We praise, bless, and worship the Lord, singing and exalting Him throughout all ages.

(Katavasia: “The command of the tyrant...”)

Tone 2 Ode 9 - Heirmos

With pure souls and blameless lips, come, let us magnify the all pure and spotless Mother of Emmanuel!
Through her, let us offer prayers to Him Who was born of her:
“Spare our souls, O Christ our God, and save us!”

Refrain: Glory to You, our God, glory to You!

*Envious Judas proved himself both ignorant and evil.
He sold the divine Gift through Whom our debt of sin is loosed.
This miserable man sold the grace of God's love.
But spare our souls, O Christ our God, and save us!*

Refrain: Glory to You, our God, glory to You!

*Judas went to the lawless rulers and said:
“What will you give me if I betray to you Christ Whom you seek?”
From intimate companionship with Christ, Judas is drawn away by gold.
But spare our souls, O Christ our God, and save us!*

*Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.*

*O blind and greedy avarice! Have you forgotten what you were taught, that the whole world is not worth your soul?
Yet you, O traitor, despaired of your life, and made a noose and hanged yourself.
But spare our souls, O Christ our God, and save us!*

(Katavasia: “With pure souls...”)

Exapostilarion

Your bridal chamber I see adorned, O my Savior, and I have no wedding garment that I may enter.
O Giver of Light,
enlighten the vesture of my soul, and save me!

The Praises (Psalms 148, 149, 150)

V. Praise Him for His mighty deeds; praise Him according to His exceeding greatness! (Ps. 150:2)

Tone 1

A harlot recognized You as God, O Son of the Virgin.
With tears equal to her past deeds, she besought You, weeping:
“Loose my debt, as I have loosed my hair!
Love the woman who, though justly hated, loves You!
Then with the publicans will I proclaim You, //
O Benefactor, Who love mankind.”

V. Praise Him with trumpet sound; praise Him with lute and harp! (Ps. 150:3)

The harlot mingled precious myrrh with her tears.
She poured it on Your most pure feet and kissed them.
At once You justified her.
O Lord, Who suffered for our sakes, // forgive us also and save us!

V. Praise Him with timbrel and dance; praise Him with strings and pipe! (Ps. 150:4)

As the sinful woman was bringing her offering of myrrh, the disciple was scheming with lawless men.
She rejoiced in pouring out her precious gift.
He hastened to sell the priceless One.
She recognized the Master, but Judas parted from Him.
She was set free, but Judas was enslaved to the Enemy.
How terrible his slothfulness!
How great her repentance!
O Savior, Who suffered for our sakes, // grant repentance to us also and save us!

*V. Praise Him with sounding cymbals; praise Him with loud clashing cymbals!
Let everything that breathes praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! (Ps. 150:5)*

Oh, the wretchedness of Judas!
He saw the harlot kiss the footsteps of Christ,
but deceitfully he contemplated the kiss of betrayal.
She loosed her hair while he bound himself with wrath.
He offered the stench of wickedness instead of myrrh,
for envy cannot distinguish value.
Oh, the wretchedness of Judas! //
Deliver our souls from it, O God!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

Tone 2

The sinful woman ran to buy the precious myrrh with which to anoint her Savior.
She cried to the merchant: "Give me myrrh, // that I may anoint Him Who has cleansed all my sins!"

now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 6

The woman who was engulfed in sin found in You a haven of salvation.
She poured out myrrh with her tears and cried to You:
"Behold the One Who brings repentance to sinners!
Rescue me from the tempest of sin, O Master, //
through Your great mercy!"

Aposticha

Tone 6

Today Christ comes to the house of the Pharisee.
A sinful woman crawls to His feet and cries:
"Look at me who am engulfed in sin,
in despair because of my evil deeds!
But in Your goodness do not despise me!
Grant me forgiveness of my evil deeds, O Lord, //
and save me!"

V. Satisfy us in the morning with Your steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad as many days as You have afflicted us, and as many years as we have seen evil. Let Your work be manifest to Your servants, and Your glorious power to their children. (Ps. 89:16-18)

The harlot spread out her hair to You, O Master;
Judas spread out his hands to lawless men:
she in order to receive forgiveness;
he in order to receive some silver.
We cry to You, Who were sold for us and yet set us free: //
"O Lord, glory to You!"

V. Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands, establish it. (Ps. 89:19)

The corrupt and filthy woman drew near to You, O Savior.
She poured out her tears on Your feet and thus announced Your Passion.
“How can I gaze on You, O Master?
Yet You came to save the harlot.
Raise me from the depths, for I am dead in sin,
as You raised Lazarus from the tomb after four days.
Accept me in my misery, O Lord, //
and save me!”

V. I will thank You, O Lord, with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wondrous works. (Ps. 9:1)

Despairing for her life, and despaired of for her deeds,
the woman came bearing myrrh to You and cried:
“O Son of the Virgin,
though I am a harlot, do not cast me aside!
O Joy of the angels,
do not despise my tears!
As You did not reject me as a sinner, // accept me now as a penitent, in Your great mercy!”

*Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.*

Tone 8     (The Hymn of Cassia)

The woman had fallen into many sins, O Lord, yet, when she perceived Your divinity,
she joined the ranks of the myrrh-bearing women.
In tears she brought You myrrh before Your burial.
She cried: "Woe is me!
For I live in the night of licentiousness,
shrouded in the dark and moonless love of sin.
But accept the fountain of my tears,
You Who gathered the waters of the sea into clouds!
Bow down Your ear to the sighing of my heart,
O You Who bowed the heavens in Your ineffable condescension!
Once Eve heard Your footsteps in Paradise in the cool of the day,
and in fear she ran and hid herself.
But now I will tenderly embrace those pure feet and wipe them with the hair of my head.
Who can measure the multitude of my sins,
or the depth of Your judgments, O Savior of my soul?//
Do not despise Your servant in Your immeasurable mercy!"
